

Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to broadcast an anti-Kerry
documentary days before the election.

This kind of action
is an example of the dangers of media
consolidation.

The public airwaves
that Sinclair uses
are free of charge,
thus Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

These actions by Sinclair show that we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Jeff Thayer
